

Introduction and Recap:

The _____ gives Gospel Fullness. (Psalm 40:4-6; Colossians 1:9-12)

1. Gospel Fullness begins with the supremacy of Christ. (Colossians 1:15-20)
2. Gospel Fullness brings fruitfulness in relationship with Christ. (Colossians 1:21-23, 3:1-9)
3. Gospel Fruitfulness is filled with love in Gospel Fullness. (John 15:9-14; 1 John 5:3)
4. Gospel Fullness brings fruitfulness with believers. (Colossians 3:12-17)
5. Gospel Fullness brings fruitfulness in our family. (Colossians 3:18-21)

Christ _____ marriages to bring Gospel Fruitfulness. (Colossians 3:18-19)

1. Submission and love are fruitful in combination.
2. Gospel Fruitfulness in marriage is seen in mutual loving submission.

Christ _____ the family to bring Gospel Fruitfulness. (Colossians 3:20-21)

1. Children, obey your parents for Gospel Fruitfulness.
2. Dad, disciple your children for Gospel Fruitfulness.
3. Christ ordered family to thrive for the glory of God.

Conclusion:

With mutual loving submission to each other and before God, marriages and families thrive to the glory of God.