

Grace & Government Follow Up Questions

Week 3: 1 Timothy 1:3-7 (and 6:3-5)

“Silencing Teachers Who Thrive on Controversy”

Regular Follow Up Questions

- 1) What truth about God did your heart most delight in?
- 2) Where did the gospel strengthen you?
- 3) What did the Lord convict you of?
- 4) What was your major application?
- 5) What new things have you learned in trying to live out your application?
- 6) How have your prayers been affected?

Specific Follow Up Questions

- 1) Over the last few years, who have been the primary voices that you’ve received your political information from?
 - a. Why do you find their perspective, commentary, or reporting helpful?
 - b. Do they deal with controversial issues in a way that leads to more hostility or less hostility?
- 2) What sort of spiritual effect have these voices had in your life? Can you say with honesty that they have helped you to grow in love, good conscience, and faith?
- 3) We all need to get the news from some place. What are some good litmus tests we can use to see if a source is worth listening to?
- 4) Why do we find ourselves so easily caught up with teachers who thrive on controversy?
- 5) How can you help extract someone from a world where they’ve gotten hooked on listening to teachers who thrive on controversy?
- 6) How does sound doctrine become a safeguard against bad or false teachers?